DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 12-14 in Paper No. of 2/4/2004 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

On line 2, "the gas for plasma reaction has an octafluorocyclopentene purity of 99.9% by volume based on the total volume of the gas for plasma reaction" is indefinite because it is unclear whether octafluorocyclopentene comprises 99.0% by volume of the total gas volume or whether it has a purity of 99.9%.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamada et al. (US 6465359 B2).

Yamada teaches, "... the present invention utilizes a mixture of  $C_5F_8$  (same as applicant's gas for plasma reaction) in combination with a carrier gas and at least one of CO and  $O_2$ . It is preferred that the  $C_5F_8$  gas be of very high purity--in the range of greater than 97% pure and preferably at least 99% pure" (column 12, lines 31-43) and "It is also possible to add carrier gases which do not react with the substrate being processed; the carrier gases including Ne, Kr, Xe, He, Ar,  $N_2$ , etc." (column 7, lines 27-31), which reads on,

An etchant gas comprised of octafluorocyclopentene characterized in that the gas has an octafluorocyclopentene purity of at least 99.9% by volume.

Yamada differs in failing to teach the total content of nitrogen gas and oxygen gas, contained as trace gaseous ingredients of the remainder, is not larger than 200 ppm by volume, in claim 12; and is characterized as having a moisture content of not larger than 20 ppm by weight, in claim 13.

It is the examiner position that it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention to employ a gas comprising a total content of nitrogen gas and oxygen gas, contained as trace gaseous ingredients of the remainder, being not larger than 200 ppm by volume and having a moisture content of not larger than 20 ppm because the reference of Yamada et al. (US 6,465,359) suggests that a high purity is desirable. One of ordinary skill would be motivated to obtain the highest purity possible.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lynette T. Umez-Eronini whose telephone number is 571-272-1470. The examiner is normally unavailable on the First Friday.
